Ode to a Dental Hygienist

Hygienist, in your dental chair
I sit without a single care,
Except when tickled by your hair.
I know that when you grab the drills
I need not fear the pain that kills.
You merely make my molars clean
With pumice doped with wintergreen.
So I lean back in calm reflection,
With close-up views of your complexion,
And taste the flavor of your thumbs
While you massage my flabby gums.
To me no woman can be smarter
Than she who scales away my tartar,
And none more fitted for my bride
Than one who knows me from inside.
At least as far as she has gotten
She sees how much of me is rotten.

Climb 'til Your Dream Comes True

Often your tasks will be many,
And more than you think you can do---

Often the road will seem rugged,
And the hills unsurmountable, too---

But always remember the hills ahead,
Are never as steep as they seem,

And with Faith in your heart start upward
And climb 'til you reach your dream

For nothing in life that is worthy
Is ever too hard to achieve,

If you have the courage to try it
And you have the faith to believe

For Faith is a force that is greater
Than knowledge, power, or skill

And many defeats turn to triumph
If you trust in God's wisdom and will-

For Faith is the mover of mountains,
There's nothing that God can't do.

So start out today, with Faith in your heart
And climb 'til your dream comes true.
